- e) To promote such legislative, social and administrative reforms as may be relative to the objects of the Company.
- f) To communicate and co-operated with any body or organisation whose aims and objects are consistent with those of the Company, or to amalgamate with any such body, provided it shall prohibit the distribution of its income and property amongst its members to an extend at least as great as is imposed on this Company.
- g) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, easements or property, real and personal, and any rights or privileges which may requisite for the purposes of, or capable of being conveniently used in connection with, any of the objects of the Company and, so far as the Law or Licence of the Governor if granted may from time to time allow, and to sell, demise, mortgage, give in exchange or dispose of the same. In case the Company shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Company shall only deal with the same in such manner as allowed by Law, having regard to such trusts.
- h) To enter into any arrangement with the Government or authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them; and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions, which the Company may think it desirable to obtain; and to carry out, exercise and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.
- i) To collect from members, the general public or otherwise, funds for the purpose of carrying on or furthering the objects of the Company or any of them.
- j) To hire and employ appropriate staff and subject to Clause 4 of the Memorandum to pay them and to other persons in return for services rendered to the Company salaries, wages, bonuses and gratuities.
- k) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manners as may be permitted by the Law for the investment of trust funds.

- To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.
- m) To establish branches and branch offices in such places as the Company shall think fit for the carrying out of its objects.
- n) To do all such other things as are necessary or advisable, for the advancement generally of the interests of the Company, or which are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects.
- 4. The income and property of the Company whencesoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company as set forth in the Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the members of the Company.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of reasonable and proper remuneration to any officers or servants of the Company, or to any members of the Company or other person in return for services actually rendered to the Company, nor prevent the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding the rate for the time being charged by Bankers in Sydney on overdrawn accounts on money lent, or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Company; but so that no member of the Board of Directors or governing body of the Company shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Company paid by fees, and that no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Company to any member of such Board or governing body, except repayment of out-of-pocket expenses and interest at the rate aforesaid on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Company; provided further that the provision last aforesaid shall not apply to any payment to any railway, gas, electric, lighting, water cable or telephone company of which a member of the Board of Directors or governing body may be a member or any other company in which such member shall not hold more than one-hundredth part of the capital and such member shall not be bound to account for any share of the profits the member may receive in respect of any such payment.

- 5. The liability of the members is limited.
- 6. Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute towards the assets of the Company in the event of the same being wound up during the time that the member is a member, or within one year afterwards, for the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before the time at which the member ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the same and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding ten dollars.

- 7. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains after the satisfaction of its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company but shall be given or transferred to some other Institution or Institutions having similar objects to the objects of the Company, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income or property among its or their members to an extend at least as great as is imposed on the Company under the virtue of Clause 4 hereof such Institution or Institutions to be determined by the members of the Company at or before the time of dissolution or in default thereof by the Chief Judge of the Equity Division of the Supreme Court of New South Wales or such other Judge of that Court as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provision then to some charitable object. Provided that such Institution or Institutions are public benevolent institutions, registered as such under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (Commonwealth) as amended from time to time, and under the Charitable Fundraising Act 1991 as amended from time to time or exempted from registration by or under that Act (formerly registered under Section 78 (1) (a) of the Income Tax Assessment Act (1936) (Commonwealth) and registered under the Charitable Collections Act (1934) (NSW)).
- 8. True accounts shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company, and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place and of the property credits and liabilities of the Company and subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Company for the time being, such account shall be open to inspection by the members. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheets ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors.
- The Company is subject to regulation by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission who shall be notified of all additions, alterations and amendments made to or in the regulations contained in the Articles of Association.

We the several persons whose names and addresses are submitted are desirous of being formed into a registered Company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Company:

- 3. For the purpose of registration, the number of members of the Company is to be taken to be five hundred (500) but the Board of Directors may from time to time register an increase in numbers.
- 4. Full voting Membership of the Company shall be open to:
- a) The signatories to the Memorandum of Association and these Articles.
- b) Individuals on payment of the annual subscription payable under these Articles.
- c) Persons appointed honorary or life members by members of the Company in general meeting.

A member shall not be entitled to vote at an annual general meeting or any general meeting unless the subscription of that member has been paid at least 28 days prior to the said annual general meeting or general meeting.

5. The privileges of any member of the Company shall not be transferable and shall cease on the death of such member and in case of all members on retirement, exclusion, or, if the Board of Directors so determine, on failure to pay the subscription annually.

Every member shall be bound to further to the best of the member's ability the objects, interest and influence of the Company and shall observe all regulations and by-laws of the Company, made pursuant to the powers in that behalf hereinafter contained.

- a) An annual subscription is payable by members of the Company and shall be such as the Company in General Meeting shall from time to time prescribe.
- b) Until otherwise fixed, the annual subscription shall be $50.00.
- c) The Board of Directors may decide on application by a member to waive or reduce the annual subscription.

MANAGEMENT

Management:

7. The Management shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

Board of Directors:

8. The Board of Directors shall operate throughout the State of New South Wales and Australia and wherever it may from time to time resolve to operate.

- a) The Board of Directors shall consist of a maximum of 12 members. Of these, a maximum of 9 are appointed by the members. Subject to clauses 18 and 19 below, the remaining three positions can be filled by way of an absolute majority vote of the Board of Directors. Any Director appointed by the Board of Directors shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.
  - The Executive of the Board of Directors will consist of: a President, two (2) Vice Presidents and the Honorary Treasurer. An Honorary Legal Adviser may also be appointed.
- b) The Board shall delegate to the Executive any of the powers of the Board to manage and control the affairs of the Company. Decisions of the Executive shall be referred to the Board for ratification.

Election of Executive:

10. The Executive of the Board of Directors shall be elected from and by the Board of Directors at the Board's first meeting after the Annual General Meeting.

Business of the Company:

11. The business of the Company shall be managed by the members of the Board of Directors who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Corporations Act or by these Articles required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulation of these Articles, to the provisions of the said Corporations Act and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board of Directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Resolutions:

- 12. A resolution in writing or a signature that can be ratified electronically, including via email, signed by all the members of the Board of Directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board of Directors duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more members of the Board of Directors.
- 13. All acts done by any meeting of the Board of Directors or of a sub-committee or by any person acting as a member of the Board of Directors shall notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Board of Directors or person acting as aforesaid, or that members of the Board of Directors or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Board of Directors.
- 14. If any member shall wilfully refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Company, or shall be guilty of any conduct which in the opinion of the Board of Directors is unbecoming of a member or pre-judicial to the interest of the Company, the Board of Directors shall have power by resolution to censure, fine, suspend or expel the member from the Company and in the latter case to erase the member's name from the Register of Members provided that at least one week before the meeting of the Board of Directors at which such resolution is passed the member shall have had notice of such meeting and what is alleged against the member and of the intended resolution and that the member shall at such meeting and before the passing of such resolution have had an opportunity of giving orally or in writing any explanation or defence the member may think fit and provided further that any such member may by notice in writing lodged with the Company Secretary at lease twenty-four hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered by the Board of Directors, elect to have the question dealt with by the Company in General Meeting called for the purpose and if at the meeting such a resolution be passed by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting (such vote to be taken by ballot) the member concerned shall be punished accordingly and in the case of a resolution for the member's expulsion the member shall be expelled and the member's name removed from the Register of Members and provided further that no member shall be fined an amount exceeding one half of the annual subscription of an ordinary member of the Company.

Indemnity:

15. To each person who is or has been a director, alternative director, executive officer or Advisory Committee member; and to such other officers or former officers of the Company or any wholly owned subsidiary as the directors in each case determine.

(a) Indemnity

The Company must indemnify, on a full indemnity basis and to the extent permitted by law, each person to whom this article applies for all losses and liabilities incurred by the person as a director, an officer or an Advisory Committee member of the Company or of a wholly owned subsidiary, including, but not limited to liability for negligence or for reasonable costs and expenses incurred.

- i. in defending proceedings, whether civil or criminal in which judgment is given in favour of the person or in which the person is acquitted; or
