

THE NITTY GRITTY FACE-TO-FACE

SPECIALISED REPRODUCTIVE AND SEXUAL HEALTH TRAINING FOR YOUTH WORKERS

Do you work in a role supporting young people? Would you like to enhance your skills to improve youth sexual health outcomes?

The Nitty Gritty will develop your knowledge of reproductive and sexual health to support young clients. This course is for anyone working with young people.

Content includes consent, contraception, STIs and communication about sexual health.

Learning activities are based on young people with a focus on priority groups:

- Young people with disability
- Young LGBTIQ people
- Young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Young culturally and linguistically diverse people
