Guiding principles

Family Planning NSW has expert, passionate staff who provide high quality services. Our work is guided by underlying principles to ensure we are providing the best possible services to the community.

- Focusing on the whole person throughout their lifespan informed by the social determinants of health
- Working in collaboration and partnership to strengthen our services and programs
- Being advocates for the community
- Developing and using best practice and evidence based approaches
- Promoting freedom of choice which reflects individual differences and preferences
- Building the capacity of our organisation, other professionals and the community
- Promoting professionalism and continuous improvement in our ways of working
- Fostering innovation and creativity in our work.

Vision, values and purpose

Vision

Our vision is for all people to have high quality reproductive and sexual health.

Values

Human rights focus - promoting the rights of all people to reproductive and sexual health

Integrity - maintaining a strong ethical base, being accountable and transparent

Inclusiveness - valuing and respecting diversity without judgement

Equity of access - ensuring access to our services for all including priority populations

Client centred - placing the needs of the whole person at the centre of our work

Commitment to excellence - ensuring high standards in all our work

Purpose

To provide specialised services and programs and advocate to promote the reproductive and sexual health and rights of all.

I agree with the Vision, Values and Purpose as stated above and apply for membership to Family Planning NSW. Members must be financial four weeks prior to the Annual General Meeting in order to vote and three months prior in order to be nominated for the Board of Directors. $55 Membership Fee is enclosed.
